

Call for Artists

Arts@Clark! and the Bethany Library are proud to present the Third Annual Public Art Exhibit on Sunday August 14th, 2022 (rain date Sunday August 21).

This outdoor exhibit will feature works in painting, sculpture, drawing, quilts, pottery, site-specific installation and more on the Library grounds in scenic Bethany, CT. This annual art exhibit is part of the Clark Memorial Library's summer programming and exemplifies its mission to Engage, Connect and Grow.

The theme of this year's show is "Off The Beaten Path." As we continue to navigate these challenging times, what roads do we take towards the future? What paths do we forge ahead through our creative responses to the world? Artwork specific to the theme as well as non-theme related work in all mediums are welcome.

Artists set-up: 10-noon day of exhibit

Exhibit open to the public: 1:00 to 5:00

De-installation begins promptly at 5:00

Free: No entry fees, no commissions taken for sales
